

CU Direct Connect's 2nd Annual Golf Tournament Raises $19,500 for Charity

Denver, CO, September 1, 2005 – CU Direct Connect's 2nd Annual Charity Golf Tournament raised over $13,500 for the Colorado Credit Union League Foundation and $6,000 for First Tee of Colorado. The event attracted 130 golfers representing credit unions from across the state and CU Direct Connect's vendor partners.

"I'd like to thank CU Direct Connect and all the players for making such a fantastic donation possible as we continue to promote credit unions in their communities," said John Dill, President of the Colorado Credit Union League and the Colorado Credit Union Foundation. "The Foundation's expanded mission of providing financial education and serving the underserved can only be accomplished by the generosity of our credit unions and our partners like CU Direct Connect."

In addition to supporting financial literacy programs and meeting the needs of the underserved, the Colorado Credit Union League Foundation, founded in 1982, provides a variety of scholarship opportunities for credit union members, employees, and volunteers.

First Tee of Colorado is a World Golf Foundation initiative dedicated to providing young people of all backgrounds an opportunity to develop life-enhancing values such as honesty, integrity and sportsmanship through golf and character education. Burt Automotive matched the $3,000 raised by CU Direct Connect to bring the total donation to $6,000 for this worthy charity.

Sponsors for the event included Allied Systems, Gateway Services Group, IA Systems, Capital Lending, Automotive Avenues, Credit Union Leasing of America, Kroll Factual Data, Equifax, Berenbaum, Weinshienk & Eason, P.C., SunCorp, the Credit Union Service Network, TransUnion, the Denver Newspaper Agency, InSight America, AutoTrek and Burt Automotive.
